CONTENTS

PAGE

Co-operative Mass Spectrometric Analysis of C_1–C_4 Hydrocarbon Mixtures. J. Blears and J. D. Waldron 1

Alkylnaphthalenes. Part X. 1 : 4-Dimethylnaphthalene and some trialkylnaphthalenes. R. F. Evans, J. C. Smith, and F. B. Strauss 7

An Evaporation Method for Measuring the Resistivity–Water Saturation Characteristics of Cores. J. Birks 14

Autofining : A New Process for Catalytic Desulphurization. F. W. B. Porter 18

Final Report on the Field Exposure Test Conducted by the IP Protectives Panel 32

Knock Rating Instrumentation on CFR Engines 36

The Synthesis and Properties of Tertiary Methanes. Frederick Challenger and Donald A. Pantony . 37

Relationships Between the Molecular Volume, Refraction, and Polarization of the Tri-n-alkymethanes. A. Audsley, F. R. Goss, and Donald A. Pantony 45

Ion Exchange Resins in Hydrocarbons. Andrew Gemant 50

The Sunbury X-ray Absorption Method for the Rapid Determination of Sulphur in Hydrocarbons. R. W. Cranston, F. W. H. Matthews, and N. Evans 55

Determination of the Asphaltenes Content of Bitumen 63

Obituary : C. H. Barton 64

Paint in the Petroleum Industry. H. B. Footner 65

Preparation and Physical Properties of Sulphur Compounds related to Petroleum. Part 3. Semi-aromatic Sulphides. S. F. Birch, R. A. Dean, and E. V. Whitehead 77

Correspondence : Examination of Used Lubricating Oils 87

Redwood Lecture : The Friction of Non-metallic Solids. F. P. Bowden 89

A Method for Approximate Determination of Viscosity–Pressure–Temperature Relationships for Oils. Sven Lundberg 104

Viscosity as a Means in the Graphical Statistical Analysis of Mineral Oils. C. Boelhouwer and H. I. Waterman 116

Comparison of Viscosities of American Grades of Cutback Bitumens determined by Saybolt Furol Viscometer and Standard Tar Viscometer. C. M. Gough 122

Administration of Stores in the Petroleum Industry. R. C. H. Toye 123

Linear Structural Formulæ. Godfrey Claxton and Peter Kerr 133

The Stability and Compatibility of Fuel Oil and Diesel Fuel. C. W. G. Martin and D. R. Bailey . . 138

Accident Prevention. T. T. MacLean 155

Physical Constants of a Series of Alkylnaphthalenes and Related Naphthenes. Attempts to Correlate their Structure with Physical Properties. B. B. Elsner 161

A Rapid Method for Determining the Char Value of Kerosine. A. R. Javes and Miss C. Liddell . . 170

Carbon Residue—Conradson or Ramsbottom ? 175

The Stability and Compatibility of Fuel Oil and Diesel Fuel. Contributed Discussion 176

Obituary : R. A. Baldry 178

Oil Production in the Nottinghamshire Oilfields. R. K. Dickie and C. M. Adcock 179

Surface Failure in Gears. A. Cameron 191

Surface and Interfacial Viscosity of Adsorbed Films of Asphalt. B. C. Blakey and A. S. C. Lawrence . 203

Annual Report of Council for 1953 206

Forty-first Annual General Meeting 217

CONTENTS

PAGE

The Design and Manufacture of Welded Pressure Vessels. T. B. Webb 223

Precision of Abel Flash Points by IP 33 Interim Report 240

Note on the Weak-mixture Knock-rating of Aviation Fuels above 100 Octane Number 241

Knock-rating of Vaporizing Oil 242

Symposium on Metal-working Oils

Part I. Metal Cutting

Mechanism of Friction and Lubrication in Metal-working. F. P. Bowden and D. Tabor . . 243

A Preliminary Investigation of the Effectiveness of Various Chlorinated Hydrocarbon Compounds as Cutting Oil Additives. K. J. B. Wolfe, M. D. Kinman, and G. Lennard 253

Some Aspects of the Metal Cutting Process. Geo. V. Stabler 256

Mechanical Testing of Cutting Oils. I. S. Morton and R. Tourret 261

Satisfactory Records are Essential to the Economic Application of Cutting Fluids. H. Grisbrook 269

The Evaluation of Cutting Fluids with Special Reference to Practice in the U.S.A. A. J. Chisholm 271

Discussion 276

Part II. Metal-forming

The Role of Friction in Metal-working Processes. Hugh Ford 291

Some Observations on Conditions of Lubrication in Wire-drawing dies. D. G. Christopherson, O.B.E., H. Naylor and J. Wells 295

Some Lubrication Effects in Deep Drawing Operations. E. M. Loxley and P. Freeman . . . 299

Study of Lubrication in Wire Drawing by an Electrical Method. A. E. Ranger and J. G. Wistreich 308

Lubrication of Strip in Cold Rolling Mills. R. B. Sims 314

Lubricants for Tube and Bar Drawing. A. L. H. Perry 319

Tube-drawing Oils : The Function of Fatty and E.P. Additives. J. S. McFarlane and A. J. Wilson 324

Metal-working Lubrication in the Bolt Industry. G. H. Townend 331

Discussion 333

Rotary Drilling Rigs. C. T. Reichert 347

Medical Services in the Oil Industry. S. D. McClean 358

Medical Facilities on Far Eastern Oilfields. F. L. Webster 362

Hydrocarbon Research Group Report for 1953 369

Emulsification Test for Marine Engine Oils 371

Temperatures and Thermal Conductivity of the Ground along the Alignment of the 30-inch Pipeline Kirkuk–Banias in Relation to Oil Temperatures. T. B. Murray and W. C. R. Whalley . . . 372

Author Index 401

Name Index 403

Subject Index 405